

THE UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT
CENTER FOR CULTURAL PLURALISM

THE IMPORTANCE OF ELEANOR ROOSEVELT TO THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS: CRITICAL REFLECTIONS

Women's International League for Peace & Freedom and the Center for Cultural Pluralism present:

DR. BLANCHE WIESEN COOK

Historian and Professor of History at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice

This program is partially funded by the ACLU of VT, Amnesty International Champlain Valley, Anne Slade Frey Charitable Trust, Ben & Jerry's Foundation, Green Mountain Fund of the Vermont Community Foundation, Golub Foundation, WILPF US, The Vermont Humanities Council, Bernard & Sandra Otterman Foundation, and at UVM: Gender, Sexuality & Women's Studies; College of Engineering & Mathematical Sciences; College of Education & Social Services; Honors College; Larner College of Medicine; and Graduate College.

OCTOBER 11, 2019
7:00-9:00 PM

Billings-Ira Allen
Lecture Hall 101
26 University Place

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

For info: www.uvm.edu/ccp
For ADA accommodations: (802) 656-7753 or access@uvm.edu